PREFACE

It was thinking of you that you decide to write this book of suggestion, guide and put into your heart the knowledge that will lead you to sentimental, professional and financial success.

The wrong form of knowledge about life often leads people to be losers always, it seems that they live under curses, persecutions, condemnations and destruction.

I write compact books, but complete in knowledge so that the reader can better understand the mechanism that involves the lives of all people so that they are successful in everything they do.

What we know and what we think has a lot to do with our life, so in this book you will learn a lot to have a different path from the ones people are living today.

What we actually say is what we believe and what we feel, so we have to learn to think and speak right.

CHAPTER I

HOW TO CLEAN THE MIND

We learned so much wrong in childhood, from our parents, our teachers, our neighbors, in books, on TV, in newspapers, in magazines, on the radio, that as adults these teachings are the basis of our information.

When children learned that something we want is not possible for us because it is very expensive for our parents.

Since it was not possible for them it will also be impossible for us.

This way of thinking has led millions of people to be understanding and not try to acquire or change their lives because it is impossible for them.

There are people who believe that because they were born poor they will live in poverty because they can do nothing to get out of that calamity situation.

Millions of people live at the lowest level of poverty and are content with this type of life.

They live badly, eat badly, sleep badly and say they are happy to live like this.

The human being is a living being and complete with all the necessary capacity to be successful.

(3)

But what has been passed on to us since our birth is that what we cannot do is no use even thinking.

The idea that we are born poor and do not have the gift of being rich is very clear in people's lives.

In a population of 1.1 billion and three hundred million people, as is the case in India, it is difficult for a large part of the population to become aware that goods, wealth can and should be conquered naturally and with total freedom for them.

The human mind is where we learn all the things that will happen in our life, whether for our good or our bad.

The right way to concentrate the mind hardly anyone uses because it has not been taught.

Millions of people don't even know what it is.

The form of mass communication seems to be an instrument for the destruction of peoples' minds, because what I put up for people to see, feel and take notice of is always I cannot.

The stories presented in telenovelas are that a poor person only changes his life if he marries a rich person, even if that person has no character, it is still a reality today, so the news are full of ads of crimes of all kinds. species.

Apostle Paul said: When I was a boy I thought like a boy.

(4)

But today we are no longer boys or girls, we are in the fullness of time and great achievements have to be achieved.

If we don't know how, then we have to arrest her. And learn from what you know. Not with what you don't know.

A blind person cannot guide another blind person, as they will fall together in the first obstacle that appears before them.

I met a lady who had graduated from law school, but due to lack of financial means and living under her parents' shadow, she sometimes worked on anything that came up.

I started teaching him how to get out of that calamity and lack of opportunities, it took me a year in a row, showing him the right way out of this poverty.

He took the test of the Brazilian Bar Association, passed the first with great divine intervention, by the wisdom of God, which he gives freely to all and does not throw us in the face.

Today he has his own office, recently bought two cars and gave one to his husband. It just doesn't prosper anymore because what it learned from me doesn't put it first, but it uses reason a lot.

Every time I visit your office, I add more knowledge that I hope will be of use to you.

It is not by force that we change a behavior, but by knowledge.

(5)

The prophet said:

My servant the righteous will guide my people with wisdom.

Certainly the truth is the one who guides us to the grand paths.

The most widely read book in Jesus' day, the Christ of God, was the prophet Isaiah, but even so they killed their savior and thereby lost God's blessing on their lives.

Israel today is an ordinary people, it has a different life system than other people for religious reasons, but its discipline of life is a very different philosophy of life than the preaching of Moses who by the strong hand of God took them out of Egypt.

Religious systems don't add life to your life, but good news of how what you think and what you do works will make all the difference.

What we learned in our childhood is what we are experiencing today.

A prostitute had two children in a relationship, they raised their children the same way they lived, the children grew up and took the same path.

What we learn and what we will actually be.

What to do to reverse this situation

Born again!

Learn everything again, but in a correct way.

It's possible?

Yes and this new life is at your disposal, you just need to want it.

To make a decision we have to be sure of what we are going to do, because a wrong decision often leaves incurable scars, such as a bad marriage, a badly constituted society, a badly structured project, a badly acquired good, all of which leave sequels that will influence our new decisions.

In the current century in which we live, there is no place for a loser.

There is mental confusion that causes people to mutilate themselves in many ways.

- 1) I will not succeed
- 2) This is not for me
- 3) My life has no concert
- 4) I am not lucky with anything
- 5) I was born to suffer
- 6) What I desire does not manifest in my life
- 7) I've asked all the saints for help and nothing
- 8) I am satisfied and I will continue like this
- 9) I'm afraid to try
- 10) Live for anything?
- 11) Nobody can help me
- 12) I hate the world and people
- 13) I hate those who have everything and I have nothing

These are phrases from people who no longer believe in anything else, trying and achieving nothing.

The bars of life are full of people who think like that.

(7)

The doctors' offices are full of people with mental problems and they no longer know what to do.

Churches that claim to be Christian invite and preach their deliverance through sacrifices, offerings and tithes.

The meeting house of certain religious sects also has its own ways of selling as if it were the product of the liberation of the people who seek it to ease their daily struggles.

In certain cities, there are people who do nothing without consulting their spiritual guide.

They are people from all walks of life who, because they do not know the truth, seek the direction of the target of their lives by any means.

I met a man who thought that his job, his income he earned, was due to a certain spiritual entity that he worshiped.

One day he set his house on fire and burned everything he owned, then died leaving his family in a state of calamity.

A young woman who no longer wished to live under her mother's domain killed her by striking her with a stone. After an investigation, she pleaded guilty and then confessed to the crime.

He said to the judge who was asking him:

I wanted all her assets for me.

(8)

However, this young woman did not know that in the current legal understanding whoever kills parents to keep the assets is not entitled to them.

The mental pressure on people who see no way out of their own survival has led thousands of people to crime in a cruel and barbaric way.

The wrong way we learn how life works is the main cause of today in Brazil having the highest rate of crimes against parents in the world.

Fear, anxiety, causes depression.

A depressed person is a case of apparent madness.

A woman threw her husband out of the house because he was unemployed, the anxiety was so great that it almost drove him crazy.

This is how people who do not know about life and what to live live.

A young woman left her state where she was born with the intention of being wealthy selling her body in prostitution, arriving in a large city and immediately sought to know where the poorly loved men of that city were concentrated.

He started to frequent the frequented places where these people, using their sensuality, soon conquered several badly loved men from that place.

(9)

By consulting with other prostitutes about how to take some of these men's goods, after consulting with other opportunistic people, the solution was arrived at, getting pregnant with that person and having their son, or daughter, after they entered,

In court and enforce under the law to have your support and that of your child.

A financially successful young man, but barely loved by his wife, was in that place flirting with women and when he saw her he soon stayed with her.

That same night they had sex without a condom, and the following month the woman was there trying to tell him that now he was going to be a father.

Immediately some benefits were agreed upon for her until the child's birth. As a home, money for maintenance and total freedom to go on with life.

During the nine months of gestation the life of this young man became a torment, she wanted much more than what they had agreed.

In consultation with their unloved friends, they reached the following conclusion, after the child's birth, they said; We will deliver to the alligator.

And so done. This young woman's body was never found. As for the child, he lives with his grandparents today.

This is not an isolated case. They happen every day.

(10)

What has been passed on to us, taught, is what will direct us every day of our lives.

The situation is so serious that people go abroad to look for a rich husband, already with the intention that for a time it can, by law, separate and leave with part of the assets that the husband acquired.

A certain woman emigrated fraudulently adulterating documents and went to live in another country, arriving there she soon saw the customs of those men regarding the life of a woman.

He discovered that it was easy to arrange a marriage and after regretting the way he lived for his partner, he invited her to live in his house and after a while he approved the marriage, giving her the same rights as a citizen of that country.

In the same year she became pregnant with a son, gaining her husband's trust for good.

Every month she took a large sum of money from her husband's bank account and sent it to her home country.

After four years, she found a way to come without her husband to her homeland, as she explains that it was just a walk.

(11)

He embarked back with his son and the money he had taken from him and transferred to a personal account, arriving at his country of origin, he sought the help of a lawyer to get a divorce because he would never return.

This person forgot or was unaware that in the country where she lived and married, the laws were quite different from her country of origin.

She was prosecuted for embezzling money that was not hers, for kidnapping and abandoning her home, completely losing that nation's citizenship as well.

During the process she found another partner and in pregnancy, being of great risk, she died.

This is not an isolated case. They happen every day.

Do you know where this culture comes from?

From parents.

When my daughter grows up she will marry a rich man, no matter who he is, what matters is that he is rich.

In all public places without exception, anyone who travels with a large car, no matter who they are, has the eyes of the people of this place.

(12)

In many communities, even favelas, anyone who has a good financial condition becomes the boss, has several families, and everyone admires them, no matter where their prosperity comes from.

Where does this culture come from? How did it get there? Why do people act like that?

My daughter, or my son, when she grows up she will marry a good person, a person who has money, with a poor person.

This is taught and put into the child's mind from the time of their formation, when they are grown up for not achieving their ideal, so believed that this is how life works, it comes to the truth, this is not how life works.

Great thieves, diabolical minds, serial murders appear every day in our news.

There are people who, for not achieving anything in this life, abandon their families and become beggars in the big cities.

There are millions in all. And they exist all over the world.

It is necessary for people to form a new character, through a new life that is generated by the Holy Spirit of God in the new man that will be formed within the human being.

We are the fruit of what was generated within us, we learned a lot in the wrong way so we reap what we sowed in our hearts as an adult.

So it is necessary to learn again what is good for human beings.

CHAPTER II

THE ABILITY TO ACHIEVE COMES FOR US

What we want what we actually want for our lives exists in the world that I call the spiritual world.

I came from a home where it was not thought to be anything, but I loved music since I was little.

I learned the songs through the radio that I listened to and in this way I performed on the radio, shows, events in this city.
